

I want to support satellite radios ability to give me locally orientd news and weather.
Spare me the protections of the government and the whinings of the NAB.

If they had reasonable programming, I'd listen more often. Tell them to get a grip on their business and offer the public what it wants and needs.